

The "eBooks (R.A. Torrey, DMC)" folder contains a large collection of digital books and audio materials authored by David Michael Curtis, focusing heavily on Christian theology and biblical analysis, often with a comparative perspective against Roman Catholicism and other Christian denominations.

Here are some key themes addressed in the folder:

- Comparisons and Criticisms of Religious Doctrines: A significant portion of the content focuses on comparing the King James Version (KJV) of the Bible with the doctrines of various Christian denominations, including Baptists, Calvinists, Catholics, and others like Seventh-day Adventists and Jehovah's Witnesses. Many ebooks offer direct criticisms of Roman Catholicism, addressing topics such as the veneration of saints, the Mass, and papal authority.
- Biblical Studies and End-Time Prophecies: The folder includes extensive studies on specific biblical themes, such as the Gospel, the Trinity, salvation, and end-time prophecies, including Daniel's 70-week prophecy and the Second Coming of Christ. These studies often incorporate scriptural analysis and interpretations based on the KJV Bible.
- Practical Christian Living and Relationships: Alongside theological discussions, resources offer practical advice and guidance for Christian living. This includes ebooks on evangelism, personal witness, how to love a woman, and even topics related to mental and emotional health, all approached from a Christian perspective.
